Talking for understanding

Have the student continue holding the text. Say: I'd like you to tell me about what you just read. Talk with the student enough for you to be convinced that he or she understands the text. Provide lead statements from the following table if the student appears to need support.

Note: You may wish to highlight the lead statements used.

Lead statements

What was the author telling you in this text?	Who was it that...?	Why would... say/do that?
Tell me about the part where...	What would happen if...?	What happened before/ after...?
What makes...the same as...? What makes...different to...?	How do you know that...?	Why might the author have included that information?
Show me where it said...?	What happened when...?	What would you have done if...?
Tell me more about...	If you wrote the next part of this text, what would you write?	What else would you like to know about...?
What was the best part for you? Why?	Were you surprised by something you read?	Did you expect it to finish like that? Why?

Did the student refer back to the text to locate information (circle)? Yes/No
