

Discussion starters

Johnson's conception of social education is that it is a continual negotiation between citizenship and scholarship, and between social commitment and social comprehension. What exactly does he mean? Choose a teaching resource and plot on these two continuum where this resource lies.

Figure 1.4: Johnson's (1989) tensions in social studies

