A complete reading session for the Early Years educator!

MORNING SESSION: ASSESS, PLAN, INSTRUCT

Presenter: Anne Bayetto

Anne lectures in special education at Flinders University and focuses on literacy and numeracy for students with learning difficulties. Anne is the author of Read, Record, Respond and the Stage 2 Summary Report, Oxford Wordlist Research Study and regularly provides professional development to school leaders and educators.

In this morning session educators will explore:

- what independent and successful readers know and do
- gathering background evidence and data to inform practice
- using oral reading recording sheets (RRR)
- planning for teaching and learning including practical activities to develop meaning, structural and visual reading knowledges.

AFTERNOON SESSION: ENGAGE

Presenter: Rachel Kennedy

Rachel is an education IT consultant with over 19 years of experience in education. She has worked with leading education providers in the design of online multimedia content, web design and development, curriculum writing and interactive whiteboard professional development.

In this afternoon session educators will explore:

- the 12 stages of IWB proficiency and its use in your classroom
- how digital activities can be used for shared and guided reading
- creating digital learning objects ready to use in the classroom.
