

Across

- In a partially administered estate, a beneficiary has this interest or right against the executor. [CHOSEINACTION]
- A beneficiary may intermeddle with the administration of a trust and become this type of trustee. [CONSTRUCTIVE]
- The authority for a beneficiary to bring a trust to an end was first outlined in this case. [SAUNDERSVVAUTIER]
- Any person who is capable of holding property may act as one of these. [TRUSTEE]
- Tracing can occur concerning these types of interests. [PROPRIETARY]

Down

- All trustees have these obligations. [FIDUCIARY]
- Powers and duties of a trustee are derived from the trust instrument, the court and this. [STATUTE]
- There is an obligation imposed upon a trustee to become aware of the particular ___ of the trust. [TERMS]
- Powers and duties of a trustee are derived from this instrument. [TRUST]

Across

9. There are two type of these that a beneficiary may give to a trustee.

[DIRECTIONS]