

CONNECTING WITH LAW

TEN YEAR ANNIVERSARY

SHORT FILM COMPETITION 2017

GROUNDBREAKERS

CALLING ALL AUSTRALIAN LAW STUDENTS

Want to get your name known in law? Looking for an opportunity to get creative? Want to win some great prizes?

Oxford University Press Australia invites you to create a short film about people, cases or judgements that have been 'groundbreaking', and have changed the shape of Australian law.

1st prize
$1500

2nd prize
$500

3rd prize
$250

The winning entries will be shared with law schools across Australia. Kick-start your legal career and get your name known in law.

HOW TO ENTER

- 1 Visit oup.com.au/cwl and read our submission guidelines
- 2 Create a 2 to 5 minute film that will educate, entertain and engage fellow law students and help them connect with law
- 3 Submit 2 copies of your film and an entry form to Oxford University Press

Questions? Email highered.au@oup.com

Entries close Friday August 25 2017.
