

Research sheet 1

Name:

Understanding colloquial expressions

Use a print or online dictionary to find the meaning of the word "colloquial". Write your definition in the space provided.

The word "colloquial" means:

Select at least six colloquial expressions below and find them on the pages indicated. Read the sentences they appear in and, using the context, work out and record the meaning of each expression. Use the example as a guide.

Colloquial expressions	On page	Meaning
his noggin	9	his head
yonkidonks	6
meanie	8
put a sock in it	8
donged	21
deadly	27
brilliant	29
you mob	30
swags	30
dobs	32
yarns	34

Research sheet 2

Name: _____

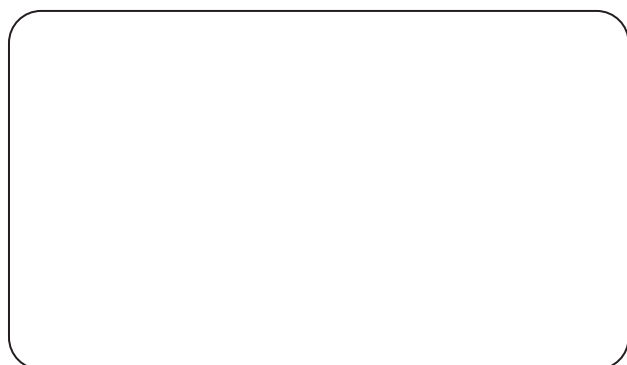

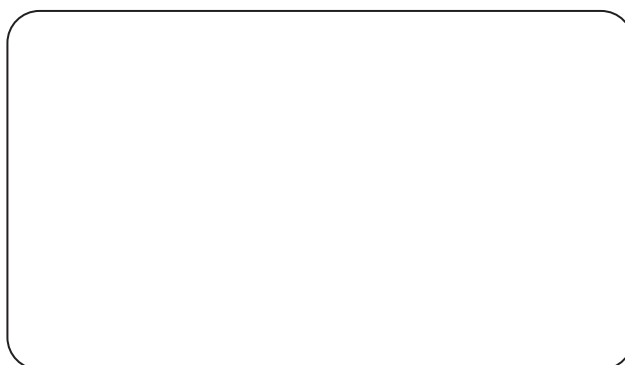

Telling the time in the past and in the present

Create a compare-and-contrast fact sheet about telling the time in the past and in the present. Your audience is your classmates and school friends. Your fact sheet is designed to educate others about how telling the time has changed over the centuries.

Compare-and-contrast fact sheet

Past: Draw a sundial

Present: Draw something you use to tell the time

A large, empty rectangular box with rounded corners, intended for drawing a sundial.A large, empty rectangular box with rounded corners, intended for drawing a modern device used to tell time.

This is different because

They are similar because

This is different because